

Literacy

- Diary writing in role as Howard Carter, a famous archaeologist.
- Writing a non-chronological report on a chosen area of Ancient Egyptian life.
- Creating a visitor guide.
- Narrative and Adventure story planning and writing.
- Myths and Legends focusing on Egyptian Gods and Goddesses.
- Instructional writing.
- Artefact descriptions.

Key texts include: Ancient Egypt, Tales of Gods and Goddesses, The Egyptian Cinderella, Miu and the Pharaoh, Flat Stanley and the Great Egyptian Grave Robbery.

Science

- Identify and name main body parts, including the function of the skeleton, major organs and systems, e.g. the human digestive system and the human circulatory system.
- Recognise the impact of diet and lifestyle on the way that bodies function.
- To explore how we see and how light travels.

PE

- Play competitive games and apply basic principles suitable for attacking and defending.
- Indoor gymnastics - developing sequences, flexibility, strength, technique, control and balance.

Maths

- Place Value
- Mathematical Vocabulary
- Problem Solving
- Addition and Subtraction
- Geometry - angles
- Multiplication and Division
- Fractions, decimals and percentages
- Statistics and Data Handling
- Measure - Time
- Regular practise of mental and written methods for addition, subtraction, multiplication and division
- Times Tables

Treasures of the Tomb

PSHE

- Working together as a team.
- Aiming High - making goals and having a positive attitude.

ART / DT

- Egyptian colour chart - abstract
- Constructing a Canopic jar using clay
- Name cartouche - Hieroglyphics
- Design, make and evaluate an Egyptian Tomb.

Music

- Key to Music - Guitar

Extra-Curricular

- Trip to be confirmed
- Sewing project
- Independent research - termly topic tasks
- Spellings, reading and maths home tasks.

Geography

- Locational knowledge of Egypt in relation to the rest of the world.
- Understanding deserts and the importance of the Nile for past and present Egyptians.

RE

- Who is a Muslim and what do they believe?
- Food and its importance in faith - Ramadan.
- In what ways is a temple/mosque important to believers?

History

- The job of an archaeologist
- Primary and secondary sources of information and historical enquiry skills
- Placing Ancient Egypt in time and comparing it with other historical time periods.
- The main events, culture and people of the Ancient Egyptian time period

Computing

- Programming and control using Turtle Logo and Scratch
- Digital Media - photography, image storage and retrieval, image editing, creating animations and slideshows.